

As Executive Director of Mission of Mercy, Jennifer Charlton, directs administrative and funding operations for the MD/PA region for 7 mobile clinic sites. Miss Charlton has served on numerous boards and at present sits on the Weinberg Performing Arts Center board. Her transformational leadership training experience was brought to bear as Past President and current Commissioner with the Commission for Women. Additionally, her background includes organizational development, event planning, marketing and fundraising. As a jazz vocalist, Miss Charlton opened for Della Reese in LA, and has performed in New York, Baltimore & Annapolis. She is a former Miss Maryland with the Miss America program and currently resides in the Frederick area with her husband and son.